

From President Kruczek:

Rob:

Thanks so much for taking the time to come to our Leadership class yesterday. Your expertise and wisdom is very valuable to our students, and they greatly enjoyed hearing from you and Joy. Coming in this morning, I ran into two of my students and they really appreciated your powerful thoughts on leadership; we ended up talking on the sidewalk for ten minutes about your remarks. I'm looking forward to class on Thursday to continue our discussion. Thank you so much for sharing with us!

All the best,

Tom

From a student attending the class:

Mr. Risman,

I wanted to thank you for coming to talk to us in class on Tuesday. Of all the speakers we had, you and Joy were by far my favorite. It was very refreshing to interact with both of you in an informal conversation and talk with you rather than be talked to.

Good luck with all your future projects and go visit Florida more often! It'll be warmer there than Cleveland very soon!

From another student that attended the class:

Dear Mr. Risman and Mrs. Anzalone,

I wanted to thank you both for speaking to our class last night. Your stories were fascinating and your dynamic interaction inspiring. I am so happy you both decided to come, it was by far our best guest speaking experience. I want to note that the reason everyone's hands might not have shot up when opening up to questions was because your presentation answered most of them! It was very apparent that research had been done and great thought had been put into it. On behalf of the whole class, thank you very much for taking the time to speak with us!
