Settler's next phase is ready

Reservations are coming in fast for the next building of Goldberg Co.'s luxury garden community, Settler's Landing. This latest in the final phase of construction is scheduled for occupancy beginning July 1.

Located on at the northeast corner of Frost Road and Greentree in Streetsboro, Settler's Landing comprises approximately 30 acres of attractive landscape and Western Reserve style architecture in four new buildings, the first of which opened to new occupants on May 1.

The final two buildings that will complete this luxury community are scheduled for occupancy by early and late fall.

When completed, the project will have a total cost of approximately $20 million.

CMHA housing office has moved

The Public Housing Applications office of the Cuyahoga Metropolitan Housing Authority has a new home in the Carl B. Stokes Social Services Mall at 6001 Woodland Avenue, near East 55th and Kinsman. Located on the first floor of the Stokes building, the office is open from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. Call (216) 361-3700 for more information.

Saluting Hometown Heroes

Slate Run Apartments, located at 450 Turney Rd., is saluting Hometown Heroes. As part of a national program through Equity Residential, it is offering teachers, fire fighters, paramedics and police officers up to $100 off their first month's rent, in addition to any current specials. With approved credit, security deposits are waived and there is no application fee. Certain restrictions apply so please call for details.

The apartment community features 62 single-story homes consisting of studios and one and two-bedroom apartments. Each has its own private entrance.

And there is still time for new residents to participate in the flower and landscape competition, which is open to all who live at Slate Run in Bedford.
